

Federalism Chart

Directions: Provide at least two bullet points for each box. Be specific in each example.

Era of Federalism	Basic features	Constitutional Features (specific provisions)	Court cases- importance <small>*(don't need to know for this test)</small>	Executive or legislative actions	Impact
Marshall Years: 1801-1835	Growth of national power- especially in economic affairs	N/P Clause General Welfare Commerce Clause Judicial Review	McCullough vs. Maryland Gibbons vs. Ogden	XXXXXX	Broadened the N/P Clause and Supremacy Clause- resulting in more federal power in such a young country
Dual Years: 1850-1932	Limited and separate roles for both national and state governments	10th amendment Reserved Powers	Dred Scott vs. Sanford Plessy vs. Ferguson	XXXXXX	Limited the role of the national government to interfere in state's rights Limited power of the 14th amendment regarding civil rights
Cooperative Years: 1933-1968	Increased role of national government in state affairs- especially economic policymaking	<small>(16th amendment)</small> N/P Clause General Welfare Commerce Clause Judicial Review- Incorporation	Wickard V. Filburn <small>(Miranda v. Arizona)</small>	FDR: New Deal JFK: New Frontier LBJ - Great Society	Dramatically increased the role of the national government over the states
New Years: 1968-2001	Reduced role of national government- especially in social welfare spending	10 th amendment Limitation on Full Faith and Credit (DOMA) (see Article IV)	US vs. Lopez US vs Morrison <small>*(Printz vs US)</small>	DOMA Reagan's Devolution Revolution Republican Revolution 1994	Role of federal government reduced- especially regarding social spending Increased power of states - welfare More Block grants

Federalism Chart

Directions: Provide at least two bullet points for each box. Be specific in each example.